PARKINSONS AUCTIONEERS & VALUERS

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1.. The highest Bidder shall be the Purchaser, subject to the right of the Auctioneer to refuse the bidding of any person. Should any dispute arise between Bidders, or between the Auctioneer and any Bidder, the Lot in dispute shall be put up again and re-sold or not AT THE DISCRETION OF THE AUCTIONEER, who shall be the sole arbitrator. The advance in the bidding will be regulated by the Auctioneer and no bidding shall be retracted. Vendors reserve the right to bid by themselves, by their Agents or by the Auctioneer.

2. The Auctioneers reserve the right to withdraw any Lot or Lots from the Sale or to divide any Lots or to place two or more Lots together, or to alter the order of the Lots, previously to or at the time of the Sale should they deem any or either of these courses advisable.

3. The Lots to be at the risk of the purchaser from the fall of the hammer and to be taken away with all faults, imperfections and errors of description, at the Purchaser's expense and risk before the time named by the Auctioneers at the time of the Sale, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid before delivery. In cases where one Buyer purchases more than one Lot, the whole of the amount of the Lots purchased is to be paid before any one Lot is delivered; also to prevent any inaccuracy in delivery and inconvenience in the settlement of purchases, no Lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale nor unless delivered by the person appointed for the purpose, and no person shall be entitled to anything not described in his Lots. No allowance whatsoever will be made for errors in description, as to quantity, quality, weight or measurement, but the Lots are to be cleared as shown at the Sale, and no Lots will be transferred from one Buyer to another.

4. The Purchasers if required are to pay down a deposit of 25 pence in the pound, or such a sum as the Auctioneers may name, in part payment (each deposit to be applicable to any Lot or all Lots purchased), and to give in their names and places of abode when required; in default of which the Lot or Lots purchased by them to be at the disposal of the Auctioneers and the Auctioneers reserve the right to cancel the Sale should the purchaser default.

5. The Auctioneers act as Agents only. Each Lot as set out in the catalogue, or as divided or joined with any Lot or Lots at the sale at the sole discretion of the Auctioneers, is sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of description, and neither the Vendor nor the Auctioneers are responsible for the authenticity, attribution, genuineness, origin, authorship, date, age, period, condition or quality of any Lot. All statements in the catalogue as to any of such matters are statements of opinion, and are not to be taken as, or implying, statements or representations of fact. Purchasers are deemed to have satisfied themselves by inspection or otherwise as to all such matters including any reference to quantity, weight or measurements, and as to the physical description of any Lot. Neither the Vendor nor the Auctioneers make or give, nor has any person in the employment of the Auctioneers any authority to make or give, any representation of warrant and in any event neither the Vendor nor the Auctioneer are responsible for any representation or warranty or for any statement in the catalogues, all of which matters must be settled exclusively and solely between the said Vendor or Vendors and the Purchaser or Purchasers of such goods concerned.

6. The Auctioneers to act as Agents only and not to be responsible for any default on the part of either Purchaser or Seller, and in particular not to be liable for payment to the Seller for any Lot or Lots until they themselves have received payment from the Purchaser.

7. All Lots are sold and dealt with by the Auctioneers on the instructions of their Client or Clients, and in the event of any dispute or adverse claim to any of the goods or things auctioned the Purchaser or Purchasers of such goods must look solely to such person or persons so instructing the Auctioneers for any compensation or redress.

8. In each instance the Auctioneers have the express instructions of their Client or Clients to sell and/or dispose of the respective Lots auctioned, but the Auctioneers will not be responsible for any of the consequences or results arising through the revocation of such instructions by operation of law unless such revocation be duly and properly brought to their notice expressly before such goods are sold by them, and all rights and/or remedies on the part of the purchaser or purchasers in respect of such revocation must be sought against the said Client or Clients and/or his or their representatives and not against the Auctioneers.

9. The Vendor authorises the Auctioneer to deduct commission and expenses at the stated rates from the hammer price and acknowledges the Auctioneer's right to retain any premium payable by the purchaser

10. The Auctioneers give no warranty, either expressed or implied, as to the said Client or Clients' right to sell or otherwise dispose of or deal with any of the goods comprised in any of the Lots auctioned and/or delivered.

11. The Purchasers to be answerable for all damage they, their carriers or other agents may do to any Lots or to the premises in taking down or removing their respective Lots, and to properly repair the same before their Lots are removed from the premises, or deposit with the Auctioneers such sums of money as the Auctioneer may determine to cover the cost of making good such damage.

12. All conditions and warranties as to the condition, quality description or fitness for any purpose whatsoever of any Lot sold by the Auctioneer are hereby expressly excluded. Neither the Auctioneer nor the Seller will be bound by or liable for any representation of any kind whatsoever, whatsoever or howsoever made. Neither the Auctioneer nor the Seller shall be liable for any loss or damage whether caused by negligence or otherwise of either or both of their servants or agents and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing neither the Auctioneer nor the Seller shall be liable for any loss of profit, business or production or similar or other loss whether direct or indirect or consequential, however caused. In the circumstances any potential buyer should rely solely and exclusively upon his own inspection of any Lot and should not treat statements made in sale particulars or before or during the auction by the seller or auctioneer either as representations or to be relied upon. No vehicle is warranted or held out to be roadworthy and no Lot is warranted or held out to be merchantable or safe for use or complying with statutory requirements for use, display or movement. The Auctioneer, his servants and agents have no authority to make representations.

13. The Auctioneer warrants that he will only sell Lots which he believes to be owned by the Seller or to which the Seller will be able to pass a good title but should it transpire that the Seller's title to any Lot is defective or that the Seller cannot pass a good title to the Buyer, the Auctioneer shall be under no obligation to the Buyer, other than to use his best reasonable endeavours (short of litigation) to procure the transfer of a good title to the Buyer and to assist the Buyer in exercising any remedies that he may have against the Seller.

14. The Buyer shall remove any Lot for which he has paid in full plus other charges, if any, by the time for removal, which shall be either the time for payment or the time stated in any Sale notes of the Auctioneer, whichever shall be the later, but provided that no Lot shall be removed without the Auctioneer's express written consent while the Auction is continuing. The Buyer shall be responsible for the removal of the articles and such removal must be carried out safely and lawfully. Flame cutting, the use of explosives or of any potentially hazardous or inflammatory process shall not be permissible at the site or place of sale without express written consent. The Buyer agrees to insure against and to indemnify the Auctioneer and the Seller against any and all claims arising in respect to injury or damage to person or property, whether real or personal, caused by or in connection with the acts or omissions of the buyer, whether caused by himself, his servants or agents or his principals or employer. Buyers must insure against these risks.

15. All Lots left after the specified time will be entirely at the Purchaser's risk and will be charged warehouse rent from and including the day following the day of Sale, or may be re-sold either by public sale or private contract, when the Vendors or the Auctioneers think proper without notice to the defaulter, and the deficiency (if any) by such second Sale, together with the charges attending the same and any other loss the Vendors may sustain shall be made good by the defaulter or defaulters at this present sale and be recoverable as and for liquidated damages, but any surplus that may arise on the re-sale of uncleared lots shall belong to the Vendors. The Auctioneers or Vendors shall have full right to enforce any contract made at this sale whether a deposit has been paid or not and to sue for the full price of the goods and the foregoing provision as to re-sale shall be entirely without prejudice to such right.
